

P-3-08

WILLIAM WORDSWORTH

1850.

MARY WORDSWORTH

1859.

EDWARD
BORN 21 OCTOBER
DIED 11 FEBRUARY

How glad is earth to me
I fall in love with earth,
I fall in love with earth,
I fall in love with earth.

POST CARD

THIS SPACE FOR CORRESPONDENCE

FOR ADDRESS ONLY

A Corner in Westminster Abbey, London.—Westminster Abbey is the resting place of England's celebrated dead, including heroes, poets and renowned statesmen. This part of the Abbey shows the grave of William Wordsworth, one of England's greatest poets, who became poet-laureate on the death of Southey.

Dear Charmine. July 15

received your letter of July 10
to day & glad to hear from you once more but sorry to hear that Andrea has been sick I hope she will get better by going north & I say she will be so good to be able my love to Fay & Mrs
Be from your loving Charmine

200
Mrs Tom Lusk
Virginia
Minor